Dictators of To-day: G. R. RIMMER.

G. R. RIMMER.—Geoffrey Rimmer had every reason to be proud of the performance of the Old Alleynians, which club he fathers with vigilant eye, in the Rugby Fives Championship. Four members of his club reached the final, a happy reward for one who has worked so untiringly in the interests of others. No man has done more for any club than Rimmer for the Old Alleynians and no one has achieved greater success. When Rimmer became hon. secretary—he is now hon. treasurer as well—the Old Alleynians, as far as court games were concerned, were in their infancy. By his enthusiasm and his energy that club has grown and grown, and although it is true that Old Alleynians Squash has not yet reached the same high summit as the Fives section, it is Rimmer who must be thanked for the organisation which makes so much pleasure for so many people possible. Rimmer plays both Squash and Rugby Fives very keenly and in spite of a busy life he finds time to encourage the young, while being a constant spectator at matches in which the fortunes of his club are involved.
