

RUGBY FIVES CHAMPIONSHIP COURTS

St Paul's School, London SW13. 6 standard indoor courts in a row, built 1968, with spectator gallery. Home to several national and regional tournaments including the National Singles.

Alleyn's School, London SE22. 4 standard indoor courts, from 1934 & 1961, back-to-back, enclosed 2010. Used for National Doubles and National Mixed Doubles among others.

Marlborough College, Wiltshire. 4 indoor courts in a row, built 1929, enclosed 2000. Used for National Schoolgirls' Championships and various open tournaments.

Oundle School, Northants. 4 standard courts, built 2007, back-to-back with central access and gallery.
Used for National U25 Championships among others.

Christ's Hospital, Sussex. 4 indoor courts, built 1965, back-to-back, with viewing gallery.
Used for various competitions, including the South East Open Championship.

University Sports Centre, Cambridge. 3 standard courts, built 2013, with glass back wall & viewing platform.
Used for various competitions including The Lady's Cup.

Blundell's School, Devon. 6 standard covered courts, back-to-back, with outdoor viewing, built 1963.
Used for the South West Open in July.

Sherborne School, Dorset. 5 indoor courts in a row, much altered since 1874, refurbished 2001.
Used for West of England Championships among others.

Y Club, Manchester. 2 indoor courts built 1990, with glass back walls and various viewing levels. Refloored and repainted 2020. Used for North West Open Championships among others.

University Sports Ground, Durham. 2 indoor courts, built 1957, with viewing gallery. Used for North of England Open and Northern Schools Championships among others.

Giggleswick School, Yorkshire. 2 non-standard courts built 1908, with exterior viewing. Used to host the Yorkshire Open Championships.

Loretto School, Musselburgh. 3 indoor courts built 1914 and 1964 with indoor viewing.
Used for the Scottish Open Championships.

Other courts around the country that have been used on occasion, or could be, for tournaments of various kinds:

Whitgift School, Croydon – has been used for the London Open Championships.

Derby Moor, Littleover – has been used for the Vintage Championships.

Clifton College, Bristol – has a long history of use for the West of England Championships

Tonbridge School, Kent – has been used for South East Schools Regional Tournament

Bedford School and Bedford Modern School – used for the Midlands Schools Regional Tournament

Fettes College, Merchiston Castle and Edinburgh Academy – used for Scottish Schools tournaments

Oxford University – two glass back courts that could be used for a smaller event.